IN MEMORIAM

The familiar face of Mayor Richard J. Daley will be missing from his Comiskey Park box this year. Mayor Daley passed away last December and so the White Sox lost their No. 1 fan. Here Daley is shown as he threw out the first ball on Opening Day, 1976. The White Sox fans and management will always be grateful for Daley's loyal support for many years and also for his efforts to keep the Sox from leaving Chicago.

THE MANAGER

LEMON, Robert Granville

Born Sept. 22, 1920, at San Bernardino, California. Resides in Long Beach, California. Married Jane McGee 1/14/44. Children: Jeff 29, Jim 26 and Jerry 24.

Lemon was elected into Baseball's Hall of Fame Jan. 22, 1976. He won 20 or more games 7 times for Cleveland and compiled a 207-128 won-and-lost record in the American League. Lemon began his career as a third baseman-outfielder in the Mid-Atlantic League in 1938 and he made his big league debut with Cleveland at third base in 1941.

Lemon was in military service in 1943-44-45, then was the opening day centerfielder for the Indians in 1946; however, by the season's end, he was virtually a full-time pitcher. Lemon pitched a 2-0 no-hit victory over Detroit June 30, 1948 and he led American League pitchers that year in complete games with 20 and again in 1952 with 28. Lemon also led the league in shutouts with 10 in 1948. He tied for the American League lead in complete games with 22 in 1950, 21 in 1954 and 21 in 1956. Lemon was named as the Outstanding American League Pitcher by The Sporting News in 1948-50-54 and selected as pitcher on The Sporting News All-Star Major League teams, 1948-50-54. He established a major league record for most double plays in one season by a pitcher, with 15 in 1953. Lemon was Minor League Manager of the Year in 1966. His earned run average for nearly 3,000 innings of big league pitching is 3.23. Lemon pitched for Cleveland in two World Series—1948 and 1954—winning 2 games and losing 2. He also pitched in four All-Star games. Lemon was considered one of the best hitting pitchers in big league history and he collected 37 home runs.

Over the three year span of 1948-50, Lemon won 65 games for Cleveland while losing only 35. Twice he registered 23 triumphs in a single year and he also tallied 22 victories twice; in 1954 he led the Indians to a pennant with a phenomenal 23-7 mark. After his playing career ended in 1958, Lemon served as a scout for the Indians in 1959, then coached for Cleveland in 1960 and Philadelphia in 1961. Lemon was an Angel scout in 1962-63, then managed in the minors the next three seasons in the Pacific Coast League. Bob coached for California in 1967-68, then managed in the Coast League in 1969 and won the Playoffs.

Lemon managed the expansion Kansas City Royals in 1970-71-72 and scouted for that club in '73. He scouted for Atlanta in 1975 and was a coach for the champion New York Yankees in 1976.

THE COACHES

DOBY, Lawrence Eugene

Born Dec. 13, 1924, at Camden, SC. Resides at Montclair, NJ. Married Helyn Curvy Aug. 10, 1946 and has 5 children, Chris, Leslie, Kim, Susan and Larry Jr.

A big league slugger from 1947 to 1959, Doby was the first black to play in the American League. Doby starred for Cleveland for nine seasons and also played two productive years for the White Sox, hitting 38 home runs and driving in 181 runs those two seasons. Doby twice led the American League in home runs with 32 in 1952 and 32 in 1954; he topped the league in runs batted in with 104 in 1952 and in 1954, the year Cleveland won 111 games. Doby was the league leader with 126 RBI's.

Doby enjoyed some great moments, such as when he slammed three home runs in one game Aug. 2, 1950, when he hit for the cycle June 4, 1952, and when he led the American League in slugging percentage with .532 in 1952.

He starred in the Negro National League before signing with Bill Veeck's Cleveland club in 1947. He retired with a lifetime big league batting average of .283, with 253 homers. Doby was the centerfielder on the Major League All-Star team in 1950 and he played in six consecutive All-Star games. He served with the Navy during World War II. After his playing days Doby traveled to Japan in 1962 on behalf of the U.S. State Dept.

Doby joined Montreal in 1968, serving the Expos as a scout, minor league batting instructor and spring training instructor before becoming a coach in 1971. After three seasons he coached for Cleveland in 1974, then rejoined the Expos in 1975 as a coach and batting instructor.

KNOOP, Robert Frank

Born Oct. 18, 1938, at Sioux City, IA. Resides at Yorba Linda, Calif. Married to Darlene Huston Feb. 2, 1957 and has a daughter Christie Lee. During his big league career, which started with Los Angeles of the American League in 1964, Knoop was considered one of the best defensive second basemen in the game. In addition to the Angels, Knoop played for the White Sox and Kansas City before concluding his career in 1972.

Knoop established major league records for most double plays in one game by a second baseman (6), May 1, 1966 and most putouts, 9 innings, for a second baseman (12), Aug. 30, 1966. He also tied the major league record for most doubleplays, second baseman, in a doubleheader (8). He led all American League second basemen in making doubleplays 4 different years. Knoop was named second baseman on The Sporting News American League All-Star fielding teams, 1966-67-68.

Knoop originally was signed by the Milwaukee Braves organization but in 1963 was drafted by the Angels. He was traded to the White Sox for Infielder Sandy Alomar and Pitcher Bob Priddy, May 14, 1969; he hit .283 for Chicago that season and collected 20 home runs. In 1964, his first year in the majors, Knoop tied a big league record by appearing in all 162 games as a rookie.

Knoop, Cont'd.

For the last two years Knoop served as a minor league manager. In 1975, Knoop was pilot of Quad-Cities of the Midwest League, finishing first with a 78-47 record. In 1976, Knoop managed El Paso of the Texas League to second place with a 77-56 mark.

MINOSO, Saturnino Orestes Arrieta (Armas)

Born Nov. 29, 1922, at Perfico, Matanzas, Cuba. Resides in Chicago. Married Edelia DelGado, Feb. 26, 1961. Has son, Orestes, Jr., playing in Mexican League.

One of the most popular and exciting players in White Sox history, Minoso made spectacular debut at Comiskey Park May 1, 1951, with tremendous home run in first time at bat. "Minnie" was voted American League Rookie of the Year that season as he hit .326 and knocked in 112 runs. In 1954, Minoso hit .320 and led the league in triples (18), slugging percentage (.535) and in total bases (304).

After 7 fine seasons for the Sox, Minoso was traded to Cleveland but Bill Veeck brought him back to the White Sox in 1960; "Minnie" rose to the occasion and celebrated his "homecoming" with two home runs, one a grand slam, and 6 RBI's on Opening Day! Minoso had 105 RBI's, hit .311 and led the league in hits with 184 that season.

Minoso made the American League All-Star team 7 different years. He holds the Major League record by leading his league in times hit by a pitch for 10 seasons. Minoso's White Sox lifetime batting average is .305 and he ranks second on the White Sox All-Time list in home runs with 135.

Minoso, after playing a dozen years in Mexico following his retirement from the majors, signed as a White Sox coach Jan. 10, 1976. Then, on Sept. 12, 1976, he got a base hit as a Designated Hitter against California. He is the only player to play in the majors the four decades of the '40's thru the '70's.

WILLIAMS, Stanley Wilson

Born Sept. 14, 1936, at Enfield, NH. Resides at Lakewood, California. He married Elaine Milender and they have two children, Stanley Jr., and Shawn LaRae. For the last two years Williams was pitching coach for the Boston Red Sox. In 1974 he managed the Bristol Red Sox to the Eastern League championship.

Williams' playing career in professional baseball spanned from 1954 to 1974; he played for 6 big league clubs, four in the American League. Williams pitched in the major leagues from 1958 through 1972. He made his big league debut with the Los Angeles Dodgers and won 57 games for them while losing only 35 over a 5-year period (1958-62).

During his long minor league career, Williams pitched a 7-inning, 9-0 no-hit victory against Quebec City, June 29, 1974; he also led the Piedmont League pitchers in 199 in games started, with 30, complete games with 18. In 1957 Williams led the American Association in games started with 34.

Date of Birth Place of Birth

ANDERSON, Larry RHP
6'3" 205 R-R
Born 12/3/52 Maywood, CA

MAJOR LEAGUES: Has the unique distinction of pitching a shutout in his only major league start . . . On Sept. 28, 1975 he blanked Detroit, 7-0, on 5-hits at Milwaukee, fanning 3 and walking only 2 in a route-going performance . . . Has had two brief big league trials, the first in two games in 1974 for the Brewers, then he made 8 appearances in late 1975 for Milwaukee, with a 1-0 record.

MINOR LEAGUES: Originally signed by Scouts Roland LeBlanc and Gordon Goldsberry of the Milwaukee Brewers, Anderson started his pro baseball career with Newark in the New York-Penn league in 1971 . . . In 1973 he had a fine earned run average of 2.25 for Danville of Midwest League as he fanned 101 batters in 100 innings . . . Three of his seven victories at Shreveport of the Texas League in 1974 were shutouts . . . In 1975 Anderson pitched for White Sox Manager Bob Lemon, who was pilot of Sacramento in the Pacific Coast League at that time and he registered 7 triumphs . . . Andy gave up only nine home runs in that tiny park, smallest in pro ball at that time.

PERSONAL: Resides at Pico Rivera, CA . . . Was graduated from El Rancho High School in Pico Rivera in 1971 . . . His hobby is fishing . . . He was one of Toronto's selections in the 1976 Expansion draft last November . . . He was all-league baseball player as a prep . . . Was second round pick in free agent draft of June, 1971 . . . Married Gracie Alcala on Nov. 11, 1974.

QUALIFICATIONS FOR A ROOKIE

A player who has not exceeded 130 at bats or 50 innings in a Major League season or seasons and who has not accumulated more than 45 days on the active roster of a Major League club or clubs during the 25-man player limit.

BANNISTER, Alan IF-OF
5'11" 175 R-R
Born 9/3/51 Buena Park, CA

MAJOR LEAGUES: When Alan Bannister got an opportunity to play late in the 1976 season, the speedy Californian justified the rating he had received by many scouts who classed him as a fine major league prospect . . . After being called up from the American Association by the White Sox, Bannister got into 73 games and batted .248, with a dozen stolen bases . . . In addition to excellent speed, Bannister proved his versatility by playing well in both the infield and outfield . . . Alan made his major league debut July 10, 1974, when he was still the property of the Philadelphia Phillies . . . he got in only 26 games for the Phils that season but proceeded to hit .262 when he played in 24 games for Philadelphia in 1975.

MINOR LEAGUES: Bannister exhibited his speed in his very first year in the minor leagues when he swiped 27 bases in just 30 attempts for Eugene in 1973 . . . He followed that up with 36 stolen bases in 46 tries while hitting a solid .289 in 94 games for Toledo in 1974.

PERSONAL: Resides at Buena Park, CA . . . After a prep athletic career at Buena Park High, Bannister was graduated from there in 1969 and went on to attend Arizona State University for three years . . . The California Angels made Bannister their No. 1 draft choice in June, 1969, but he refused to sign and went to college, instead . . . He had a fine athletic career at Arizona State, winning All-America baseball honors his last two seasons . . . It was then that the Phillies made Bannister their No. 1 draft selection in January, 1973 . . . This was after Bannister had established NCAA records for most hits (101), RBI's (90) and total bases (177) while playing in 70 college contests . . . Philly scout Merrill Combs signed Bannister to his first pro baseball contract . . . Alan's hobbies are travel and cameras . . . Married Kathleen Edwards Dec. 18, 1971.

BARRIOS, Francisco RHP
6'3" 195 R-R
Born 6/10/53 Hermosillo, MX

MAJOR LEAGUES: On July 28, 1976, Barrios hurled 4 hitless innings in relief of John Odom to preserve a no-hit victory over Oakland . . . It was one of three "saves" by Barrios, who also added 5 victories as a rookie on the Sox mound staff . . . The hard-throwing Mexican had a brief trial with Chicago in 1974, working just 2 innings in relief in 2 games . . . With the Sox last season, Barrios hurled 6 complete games in 13 starts, allowed less hits than innings pitched, and fanned almost twice as many batters as he walked . . . His first big league victory came on his 23rd birthday, June 10, 1976, when he went the route to win at Milwaukee.

MINOR LEAGUES: Barrios broke into pro ball in 1971 with San Luis Potosi of the Mexican Central League . . . He advanced up the Mexican baseball ladder and in 1973 while winning 10 games for Jalisco he was named the Mexican League's Rookie of the Year . . . Barrios was with Barrios, Cont'd.

Phoenix of the San Francisco Giants' organization briefly in 1973 He had a 9-5 mark for Knoxville in 1974 in his first year in the White Sox system . . . This past winter he starred for Hermosillo in Mexican Winter League.

PERSONAL: Resides in Hermosillo, Mexico . . . He started in baseball at age 13 and starred for his high school (Prevocacional) baseball team . . . His favorite player as a youngster was Juan Marichal, former Giants ace hurler . . . Barrios' hobbies are hunting, horseback riding and movies . . . He is married and has a small daughter.

BELL, Kevin 3B
6'0" 195 R-R
Born 7/13/55 Los Angeles, CA

MAJOR LEAGUES: The delay in the opening of big league spring training camps in 1976 afforded youthful Kevin Bell an opportunity he quickly made the most of . . . Bell was one of the non-roster players invited to the Sox camp and he sparked at the bat and in the field for this group in a series of non-roster games . . . This afforded

Chicago management a fine opportunity to see the big youngster . . . When the big club needed help in mid-season, Bell was called up and he immediately impressed everyone . . . In 68 games he batted .248, with 7 doubles, 6 triples and 5 home runs . . . Bell's 6 triples tied him for second on the club in that department . . . He also walloped a grand-slam inside-the-park home run at Kansas City.

MINOR LEAGUES: Bell started his pro baseball career with Appleton of the Midwest League in 1974, clouting 15 homers with 59 RBI's in 77 games as he hit .276 . . . The husky Californian split the 1975 season between Appleton and Knoxville (Southern League), combining for a total of 19 roundtrippers and 83 RBI's, with marks of .285 at Appleton and .304 for Knoxville . . . That gave Bell a total of 34 home runs and 142 RBI's in his first year and a half in pro ball . . . The White Sox advanced Bell to Triple-A in 1976 and he responded with a .285 mark in 51 contests.

PERSONAL: Kevin is the son of Donald Robert Bell, formerly a shortstop in the Cleveland Indians' organization . . . Resides at Covina, CA . . . Bell attended Mount San Antonio Junior college at Walnut, CA.

BRETT, Ken LHP
5'11" 195 L-L
Born 9/18/48 Brooklyn, N.Y.

MAJOR LEAGUES: When southpaw Pitcher Ken Brett came to the White Sox May 18, 1976, it turned out to be one of the best deals made by Chicago in years; the Sox obtained the clever left-hander along with Outfielder Rich Coggins for Carlos May . . . Brett got off to a brilliant start as the Sox won shutouts in 3 of the first 4 games he pitched . . . He came within one out of a no-hitter in his second start, winning 1-0 in 11 innings at California . . . His 10 victories was high on the Sox staff and he tossed 16 complete games in 26 starts . . . With better batting support Ken would have been a big winner as in nine of his starts Chicago was shut out or tallied just one run . . . Brett hurled 3 years in the National League, winning 35, losing only 23, and he was the winning pitcher in the 1974 All-Star Game . . . An outstanding hitter for a pitcher, Brett batted .310 in 1974 and has hit 10 homers in the majors, four of them in consecutive starts with the Phillies in 1973, a record . . . At age of 19 he was the youngest man to pitch in a World Series, making two appearances for the Red Sox in 1967 . . . Had best ERA among Sox starters last year with 3.28.

MINORS: Was signed by Red Sox organization in 1966 and made debut with Oneonta that year . . . Won 14 games in minors next year before being promoted to Boston.

PERSONAL: Resides at Boston, Mass. . . . Attended Boston University . . . Hobbies are photography and tennis . . . Brett was the Red Sox No. 1 pick in the June, 1966 Free Agent draft . . . His younger brother is the current batting champion of the American League, George Brett of the Kansas City Royals . . . Also has another brother, John, who played third base in the Red Sox organization . . . Was involved in 10-player trade between Boston and Milwaukee in fall of 1971 . . . On Oct. 31, 1972, was part of 7-player trade between Milwaukee and Philadelphia . . . On Sept. 18, 1973 was traded by Phils to Pittsburgh for Infielder Dave Cash, then on Dec. 11, 1975, went to Yankees in Doc Medich deal.

BROHAMER, Jack IF
5'9" 165 L-R
Born 2/26/50 Maywood, CA

MAJOR LEAGUES: Brohamer finished third in the American League in fielding for second basemen who played over 100 games. Jack's .984 average ranked back of only Duane Kuiper of Cleveland and Bobby Grich, ex-Oriole keystone sacker. Brohamer got in 119 games, second highest number in one season since his rookie year of 1972. His seven home runs was a new one-season career high for the little infielder and the 40 RBI's marked his big league career high. Also his 44 walks proved to be his one season high as was his 126 safeties. In 1972 Brohamer was selected on both The Sporting News and Topps All Star Rookie teams. Hit .270 in 1974 for his big league career high. Was Cleveland's regular second baseman for three seasons. Participated in triple play against Brewers Sept. 3, 1973.

MINOR LEAGUES: Had his peak minor league bat mark in his rookie season (1968) when he batted .291 for Rock Hill of Western Carolina League. Picked on that circuit's All-Star team. Tied 1969 California League lead in sacrifice flies (8) and led shortstops in assists (376).

PERSONAL: Resides at Vista, CA. Married to Helene Vinsonhaler August 27, 1967. They have two children, Jack (July 18, 1968) and Greg (June 14, 1972). Was a high school cage and diamond star for Huntington (CA) Beach High School. Attended Golden West College at Huntington Beach. A former hard-hitting White Sox outfielder, Bob Nieman, signed Brohamer to his first professional contract after Jack had been the 32nd choice of Cleveland in the June, 1967 Free Agent Draft. Brohamer's hobbies are tennis, golf and fishing.

CARROLL, Clay RHP
6'1" 205 R-R
Born 5/2/41 Clanton, AL

MAJOR LEAGUES: Injuries spoiled reliever Clay Carroll's debut with the White Sox last season. The veteran bullpen star got off to a good start with the White Sox, racking up six saves early in the campaign but then a series of injuries knocked the former Cincy ace out of action for a good share of the season. He did manage to get in 29 games in relief and had a 4-4 record with a 2.56 earned run mark. For years Carroll had been one of the key relief pitchers for Cincinnati and he appeared in three World Series for them. Carroll holds the all-time Cincinnati record for most appearances with 486. In 1972 he set a National League record for most saves in one season (37). His best National League season was in 1974 when he had an ERA of 2.14 while winning 12 games and losing only

5. Carroll got in 73 games for Atlanta in 1966. . . . He was named the Sporting News National League Fireman of the Year in 1972.

MINOR LEAGUES: Carroll's professional baseball career began in 1961 when he won 7 games for Quad-City. . . . A starter in those early days, he tossed 16 complete games his second season in pro ball for Boise, winning 14 contests.

PERSONAL: Resides at Bradenton, Florida, just a short distance from the White Sox Sarasota spring training camp. . . . Married Judy Ethel Haynes Sept. 22, 1964. . . . They have three children, Connie Sue, Lori Lynn and Bret. . . . Hobbies are fishing and hunting. . . . Originally in Braves organization, he went to Reds June 11, 1968 along with Tony Cloninger and Woody Woodward for Milt Pappas, Ted Davidson and Bob Johnson. . . . Carroll's nickname is "The Hawk."

MAJOR LEAGUES: An aggressive, hard-nosed battler. Downing was slowed down by nagging injuries most of the 1976 season but still managed to get in 103 games and he hit .256 ... An excellent base-runner for a catcher. Downing has stolen 20 bases in 30 tries the last two seasons ... The versatile hustler can also play the outfield or third base, in addition to catching ... In his first big league appearance in 1973, he suffered a severe knee injury on his first chance, diving for a foul ball ... Downing's first major league hit was an inside-the-park home run at Detroit off Tiger ace Mickey Lolich ... He had only one passed ball all last season ... In 1974 he rapped 10 home runs and in 1975 he knocked in 41 runs and exhibited excellent patience at the plate as he drew 76 walks.

MINOR LEAGUES: The White Sox can thank Scout Bill Lentini for Downing ... He was never drafted but Lentini was his Junior American Legion manager and persuaded the White Sox to sign Downing ... He played for Sarasota of the Gulf Coast League as a rookie in 1970, then in the next three years climbed up thru the Midwest League, Southern Association and American Association to the majors ... He signed his first pro contract Aug. 19, 1969.

PERSONAL: Downing didn't begin catching until he was 17 years old ... He was a 3-sport athlete at Magnolia High School, Anaheim, California, and was captain and most valuable player of the prep cage five ... Then Downing attended Cypress (Calif.) Junior College, where he caught for the college nine ... Downing's wife's name is Sheryl and they have a small son, Bradley ... Downing's hobby has been music and at one time he had 300 eight-track tapes.

Torrance, CA

MAJOR LEAGUES: Bart Johnson led the 1976 White Sox mound staff in complete game shutouts with three and he also combined with Dave Hamilton in registering another whitewash job . . . Bart has had two outstanding seasons for the White Sox, the first in 1971 when he won 12 games, saved 14 others, and had a fine ERA of 2.93 . . . Then in 1974 Johnson came up to the Sox from the minors July 5th and proceeded to win 10 games while losing only 4, with an outstanding ERA of 2.37 . . . A back injury sidelined Johnson for the entire 1975 season . . . Johnson scored his first big league victory Sept. 16, 1969, when he whipped California, 7-4, with relief help from Wilbur Wood.

MINOR LEAGUES: The White Sox drafted Johnson on the recommendation of the late "Doc" Bennet and George Noga in 1968 . . . He was the strikeout king of the Midwest League in 1969 as he fanned 200 batters in 170 innings while winning 16 games and losing only 4 for Appleton to pace them to the league championship . . . Had a 6-3 record for Tucson of the Pacific Coast League in 1970 with an ERA of 2.80.

PERSONAL: Resides at Torrance, CA . . . Played 5 seasons in Little League, then played in Babe Ruth League . . . Played Legion ball 1965-67 . . . Starred at Torrance High, where he won 20 games while losing only 2 and batted .402 . . . In 1967 he pitched his Legion nine to the California State championship . . . An outstanding prep basketball star, Johnson was named on many Prep All-American teams . . . Played one season at Brigham Young University, Provo, Utah, where he averaged over 28 points a game for the frosh quint . . . His father, Clair, was a former pro infielder in the Reds and Cardinals farm systems . . . In 1968 he pitched for the semi-pro Paramount Angels, winning 11 games and losing only one and he hit .350 . . . Played on eight championship baseball teams before he reached the age of 20 . . . Married and has two children, Brent and Jamie . . . His wife's name is Susan.

WOOD, Wilbur LHP
Born 10/22/41 Cambridge, MA

MAJOR LEAGUES: Misfortune struck the ace of the White Sox pitching staff early in the 1976 season . . . Ron LeFlore's viscous line shot broke Wood's left kneecap at Detroit May 9th and abruptly knocked the star knuckleballer out for the rest of the season . . . Complete recovery by Wood this year would be a big plus for Manager Bob Lemon because Wilbur has been a big winner for Chicago ever since becoming a starter in 1971 . . . He is the only hurler in the 76-year history of the White Sox to win 20 or more games for 4 consecutive seasons as he piled up 90 triumphs in 1971 thru 1974 . . . he has been selected on 3 American League All-Star teams . . . In 1972 Wood started 49 games to tie the White Sox record set by Ed Walsh, way back in 1908 . . . Wood was selected as the American League Pitcher of the Year in 1972 as he registered 24 triumphs . . . Wood really made good the hard way as he had six trials with the Boston Red Sox and Pittsburgh Pirates before finally coming up to stay as a regular with the White Sox in 1967 . . . In his early days with the White Sox, Wood excelled in the bullpen . . . A real workhorse, he set an American League record in 1968 when he appeared in 88 games and won the American League Fireman of the Year award . . . All but one of Wood's 147 major league victories have been in a White Sox uniform.

MINOR LEAGUES: Originally signed by the Red Sox, Wood started his pro baseball career at Waterloo, IA . . . Twice Wood won 15 games in a single season in his minor league career and another time he racked up 14 triumphs . . . The latter feat attracted the attention of the White Sox and the Pale Hose obtained Wood's contract from the Pirates organization . . . That was after the 1966 season when Wood tossed 8 shutouts and led the International League in complete games . . . In his 7 minor league seasons Wood was primarily a starter and in 1964 he tossed 19 complete games to pace the Pacific Coast League.

PERSONAL: Resides in Lexington, MA . . . "Woodie" was a fine athlete at Lexington's Belmont High School, where he starred in football and hockey, as well as baseball . . . His diamond prowess was particularly noted by Scout Neil Mahoney of the Bosox, who signed the stocky southpaw to his first pro contract . . . Fishing is Wood's prime hobby and he ranks at the top among big league players in that sport . . . Married to Sandra Malcolm Nov. 9, 1963 . . . Has 3 children, Wendy, 1964, Derron, 1966, and Christen, 1971.

DETERMINING THE MAGIC NUMBER

Determine the number of games yet to be played, add one, then subtract the number of games ahead of the closest opponent in the lost column.

ZISK, Richie OF
6'1" 208 R-R
Born 2/6/49 Brooklyn, NY

MAJOR LEAGUES: Zisk has been one of the most consistent hitters in the big leagues since becoming a Pirate regular in 1973, when he batted .324 ... he followed this up with 100 runs batted in and a .313 mark in 1974 ... In 1976 Zisk tied for the Pittsburgh club lead in homers with 21, in hits, with 168, was one behind the club leader in RBI's, with 89, and led his team in doubles with 35 ... Zisk ranked ninth last season for the National League slugging championship with an average of .465 ... In 1974 Zisk just missed tying Mel Ott's 1929 N.L. record of RBI's in 11 consecutive games as he was stopped after 10 straight contests ... Zisk led the Pirates in game-winning RBI's for the last three seasons ... he hit for the cycle (home run, triple, double and single in one game) at San Francisco 6/9/74 ... Had career high of 6 RBI's in one game vs. Cincinnati 8/23/75 ... Played RF first two seasons with Pittsburgh, then switched to LF in 1975 ... Twice hit two home runs in one game during 1975 ... On 9/10/73 Zisk went 5-for-6 at Chicago ... Zisk led Pirates in hitting with .500 average during the '75 Playoffs with Cincinnati ... His first hit was in first time at bat in big leagues off Chicago's Joe Decker in 1971 ... Zisk was named as outfielder of The Sporting News National League All-Star team in 1974.

MINOR LEAGUES: In debut hit .307 for Salem in Appalachian League in 1967 ... Slammed 34 home runs for Waterbury (AA) in 1970 ... In 1971 Zisk led International League with 109 RBI's and was second in homers with 29 ... Also topped that circuit in total bases with 252 in 1972 when he was selected to the Topps AAA All-Star team and received the Silver Glove award the same year for his outstanding defensive ability ... he was named to the 1970 AA All-East team and the Carolina League All-Star squad in 1969 ... In 1972 Zisk was home run king of the International League with 26 ... Player of the Year in Appalachian League in 1967.

PERSONAL: Resides in Pittsburgh, PA ... Was Pittsburgh's third selection in the June, 1967 Free Agent Draft ... Zisk was graduated from Parsippany (NJ) High School where he played soccer and was All-State in baseball and All-County in basketball ... Attended Seton Hall University, South Orange, NJ ... Hobbies are golf, bowling and fishing ... Married to Barbara Louise Boice on May 27, 1969 and has a son, Kevin (2).

WHITE SOX RADIO-TV

Harry Caray and Lorn Brown return as commentators on both radio and TV for the White Sox in 1977. In addition, they will be assisted by former major league star player, Jimmy Piersall, and the first feminine Major League play-by-play broadcaster, Mary Shane.

Caray is starting his 33rd year of big league broadcasting and his seventh year with the White Sox.

Brown came to the White Sox last year as a play-by-play announcer. He previously had broadcast sports at Springfield and Peoria, Ill., and Des Moines, Ia., did St. Louis Cardinal baseball, and has been telecasting Chicago Bulls basketball games the last four seasons.

Piersall played for the Red Sox, Indians, Senators, Mets and Angels and has been affiliated with the Texas Rangers front office in recent years.

Shane, who will be working a minimum of 20 Sox games, has been a sportscaster for a Milwaukee radio station, covering college and prep sports, plus professional contests.
